The annual golf tournament - “The Scottish Shipping Open” - took place on Wednesday 14th September at Kilmacolm Golf Course with 24 teams lining up to compete for the James Donald Trophy, and with 20 members competing for the Cayzer Cup.

The weather was favourable and the V Ships team of Matt Dunlop and Andy Campbell taking the honours for the James Donald Trophy, with their fellow V Ships pair of Craig Muir and Alan Donnelly in second place.

Matt Dunlop was also successful in winning the Cayzer Cup with Allan Haldane of Braids the runner up.

Other prize winners were Bruce Lucas, Janette Burnett, Mark Upton, Kenny Fraser and Lorna Spencer.

The Association wishes to place on record its grateful appreciation to Bruce Lucas and his team for all their arrangements which led to the success of the day - and to the staff of the Kilmacolm Golf Club for their help and organisation.
